

Foundation Presentation at Environmental Respect Awards Forum on Sustainability

On July 23rd, CropLife Foundation consultant Leonard Gianessi presented his talk on the Importance of Pesticides for Feeding the World at a Sustainability Forum held in Washington, DC as part of the 2013 Environmental Respect Awards. Leonard's presentation kicked off the Sustainability Forum which was sponsored by DuPont Crop Protection and was attended by 100+ international and domestic retailers. Leonard's participation was organized by long-time DuPont friend Raymond Forney, who, following Leonard's talk organized the attendees into three discussion groups for dialogue about the critical role that crop protection products play in worldwide agricultural sustainability.
