

Foundation Presents in Bloomington, Illinois

On July 9, CropLife Foundation consultant, Leonard Gianessi presented his talk on The Importance of Pesticides for Feeding the World at Lunch-n-Learn at the Bloomington, Illinois headquarters of Growmark and the Illinois Farm Bureau. Leonard's hosts included Mike Doherty, Senior Economist, Illinois Farm Bureau and Kelley Fornoff, an intern from the University of Illinois, who was among UI students who met with CropLife and industry reps during a California trip in the spring. Following the presentation, Leonard taped a Q and A session with RFD Radio Network for a radio show. Leonard was also interviewed by a reporter from Farm Week for an article in an upcoming issue.
