

Gianessi Lectures at George Mason University Lifelong Learning Institute

On April 4, CLF consultant Leonard Gianessi presented his talk on the Importance of Pesticides for Feeding the World to a class at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at George Mason University, Fairfax, VA. OLLI offers daytime courses and lectures to over 1100 active senior members. Leonard's lecture was listed in the spring 2014 OLLI catalog as one of the 139 lectures and courses offered to OLLI students. The lecture was well-attended with Leonard speaking for one hour followed by a half hour of lively Q and A.

Leonard presenting at George Mason University